

SUMMER VACATION INSURANCE TO-DO LIST

HOME

- Check your homeowners or renters insurance to see how much coverage you have for items away from your home, should your luggage get lost.
- Create an inventory of the items you're bringing along, just in case anything happens to them.
- Take a home inventory so you know what you have in your home in the event you face damage or theft.
- Review your homeowners policy with your agent to ensure you have proper coverage for all of your belongings.
- Have a trusted friend check on your home during the time you'll be away.

CAR

- If renting a car, check on your auto insurance coverage and coverage through your credit card to determine if you should purchase additional coverage through the rental.
- Avoid driving in peak traffic periods to avoid higher risk of accidents.

ADDITIONAL COVERAGE

- Consider travel insurance if you'll be flying.
- If you will driving far distances or have "attractive nuisances" in your yard, consider additional coverage through an umbrella policy.
